

BANKING & FINANCE

The firm has made a name for itself as one of the top players in the country in the Banking and Finance (B&F) practise area. It offers a variety of B&F products, including working capital, aviation financing, real estate loans, and general corporate loans, as well as projects and infrastructure financing, acquisition and leverage finance, structured finance, global loans, restructuring, external commercial borrowings, and asset securitization.

All of India's leading banks, financial institutions, NBFCs, international lenders as well as numerous investment funds, mutual funds, custodians, asset management firms, trusteeship firms, domestic businesses, and mutual funds are among the firm's clients.

Our counsels are involved in numerous cross-border financing transactions, and as a result of this, they have developed a profound understanding of international regulations, industries, and legal & financial techniques. The practise is involved in some of the largest and most complex transactions, necessitating exhaustive knowledge of the Indian finance market and its legal framework.

Our interactions with the Reserve Bank of India, which is responsible for overseeing a number of financial intermediaries, including banks and NBFCs, as well as other players in the Indian B&F market, have given us knowledge and understanding of regulatory issues and expectations, allowing us to respond to client needs within the confines of a developing regulatory framework.

The practice has a comprehensive grasp of various client requirements and is able to offer tailored solutions for difficult situations as a result of the distinctive mix of our clients (with lenders, borrowers, and other participants like arrangers and trustees).
