

CONSTITUTIONAL LAW

The Constitution of India is a Supreme Law of the Land, any executive action or judicial pronouncement or legislative enactment is subject to Constitutional Law and must be in consonance with the Constitution. Hon'ble Supreme Court and Hon'ble High Courts, being Constitutional Courts have powers to examine the constitutionality of the impugned actions and if found unconstitutional then declares it as void or ultra virus. This field of law governs all executive, judicial and legislative actions. If no remedy is available in any ordinary law then also there is remedy available under Constitutional Law.

The law office advises and provides legal assistance in relation to the validity, authority and legality of any executive, judicial or legislative action. The Firm has devoted itself and abided to the Constitutional principles of Indian Constitution