

NARCOTIC DRUGS AND PSYCHOTROPIC SUBSTANCE ACT, 1985
(NDPS)

NDPS Act deals with narcotic drugs and makes stringent provisions for the control and regulation of operations relating to narcotic drugs and psychotropic substances. It also provides the forfeiture of property derived from, or used in, illicit traffic in narcotic drugs and psychotropic substances and is guided by the provisions of the International Conventions on Narcotic Drugs and Psychotropic Substances. The 1985 Act provides constitution of special court for speedy trial of the offences punishable under the Act and the proceedings including the appeal and revision is dealt by the provisions of Criminal Procedure Code, 1973.

The Central Government, under the NDPS Act, authorises the Competent Authority to perform the functions relating to forfeiture of illegally acquired property and the orders passed by the Competent Authority are appealable before the Appellate Tribunal under the Smugglers and Foreign Exchange Manipulators (Forfeiture of Property) Act, 1976.

The law office provides complete legal assistance and represents its clients before the Special Court, Competent Authority, Appellate Tribunal, the High Court and the Supreme Court of India. The law office also provides drafting of Application, Petition, Appeal, Representation or any document.
